DEFENDANT: Jeffrey Bivens
CASE NUMBER: 3:10CR05677BHS-001

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, office, safety deposit box, storage unit, property, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer or any other law enforcement officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall notify any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

Restitution in the amount of $427,015.00 is due immediately. Any unpaid amount is to be paid during the period of supervision in monthly installments of not less than 10% of his or her gross monthly household income. Interest on the restitution shall be waived.

The defendant shall provide his or her probation officer with access to any requested financial information including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of the defendant's Federal Income Tax Returns.

The defendant shall maintain a single checking account in his or her name. The defendant shall deposit into this account all income, monetary gains, or other pecuniary proceeds, and make use of this account for payment of all personal expenses. This account, and all other bank accounts, must be disclosed to the probation office.

If the defendant maintains interest in any business or enterprise, the defendant shall, upon request, surrender and/or make available, for review, any and all documents and records of said business or enterprise to the probation office.

The defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the probation office. The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset, without first consulting with the probation office.

The defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges, opening additional lines of credit, or obtaining a loan without approval of the defendant's U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall complete 40 hours of community service as approved and directed by the probation officer, to be completed within the first two years of supervision.

The defendant shall be restricted from employment in any fiduciary position, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not be self-employed nor shall the defendant be employed by friends, relatives, associates or persons previously known to the defendant, unless approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant will not accept or begin employment without prior approval by the U.S. Probation Officer and employment shall be subject to continuous review and verification by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall not work for cash and the defendant's employment shall provide regular pay stubs with the appropriate deductions for taxes.

The defendant shall participate in the location monitoring program with Radio Frequency technology for a period of 180 days. The defendant is restricted to his/her residence at all times except for employment, religious services, medical, legal reasons, or as otherwise approved by the location monitoring specialist. The defendant shall abide by all program requirements, and must contribute towards the cost of services, to the extent financially able, as determined by the location monitoring specialist.

Judgment — Page 6 of 6

DEFENDANT: Jeffrey Bivens
CASE NUMBER: 3:10CR05677BHS-001

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties is due as follows:

- ☒ PAYMENT IS DUE IMMEDIATELY. Any unpaid amount shall be paid to Clerk's Office, United States District Court, 700 Stewart Street, Seattle, WA 98101.
- ☒ During the period of imprisonment, no less than 25% of their inmate gross monthly income or $25.00 per quarter, whichever is greater, to be collected and disbursed in accordance with the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.
- ☒ During the period of supervised release, in monthly installments amounting to not less than 10% of the defendant's gross monthly household income, to commence 30 days after release from imprisonment.
- ☐ During the period of probation, in monthly installments amounting to not less than 10% of the defendant's gross monthly household income, to commence 30 days after the date of this judgment.

The payment schedule above is the minimum amount that the defendant is expected to pay towards the monetary penalties imposed by the Court. The defendant shall pay more than the amount established whenever possible. The defendant must notify the Court, the United States Probation Office, and the United States Attorney's Office of any material change in the defendant's financial circumstances that might affect the ability to pay restitution.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program are made to the United States District Court, Western District of Washington. For restitution payments, the Clerk of the Court is to forward money received to the party(ies) designated to receive restitution specified on the Criminal Monetaries (Sheet 5) page.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

- ☐ Joint and Several

Defendant and Co-Defendant Names and Case Numbers (including defendant number), Total Amount, Joint and Several Amount, and corresponding payee, if appropriate.

- ☐ The defendant shall pay the cost of prosecution.
- ☐ The defendant shall pay the following court cost(s):
